

MARTIAL ARTS EAST

MARTIAL ARTS EAST COMPLAINTS POLICY

We take our responsibility to treat our members fairly and with respect very seriously. Accordingly, whilst it's always disappointing to hear of a complaint, we welcome the opportunity to resolve your concerns and improve the way in which we run our club.

Raising A Complaint

We're sorry you need to raise a concern with Martial Arts East. Regardless of the nature of your concerns, we want you to know that it will be taken seriously and dealt with as a priority. We welcome complaints via the below contact points;

Chief Instructor: Danny Jordan-Land

E-Mail Address: info@martialartseast.co.uk

Telephone Number: 07540 842889 or 01603 865426

Please feel free to raise minor matters with your instructor before or after classes too; we're here to help.

How We Will Receive And Deal With Your Complaint

In most cases we will respond to any complaint raised within 3 working days, however in some cases e.g. club closures this may take slightly longer.

If We Can't Satisfy Your Concerns

We hope we can resolve matters amicably with you and will gladly work through any issues you are encountering until satisfactory resolved. If for any reason you are not confident with our final outcome or you feel that your concern is so serious you do not feel it can be raised with us, you may contact our association, The British Martial Arts & Boxing Association (BMABA) on the below details;

Web: <https://bmaba.org.uk>

E-Mail: safeguarding@bmaba.org.uk

Phone: 01798 306546

In Writing: BMABA, Kemp House, 160 City Road, London. EC1V 2NX

The BMABA is our association, however they do not own or have any ultimate authority over our club. They will, however, act as a body for arbitration and will field any safeguarding concerns in confidence.

BMABA
REGISTERED INSTRUCTOR