

Privacy Policy

Martial Arts East are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, Martial Arts East is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure, and transparent way.

What personal data we hold on you

You may give us information about you by filling in forms at an event or online, or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the club, or even over our website. The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number and gender. We may also ask for relevant health information.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Reasons we need to process your data may and will include some of the following from time to time:

Competitions, seminars and various events

- sharing your personal data for seminar and competition entry.

For membership and club management

- processing of membership forms and payments.
- sharing data with our governing body for your insurance.
- sharing data with our 3rd party management system.
- publishing results and attendance of events, such as competitions and seminars.

Communications

- sending information about class updates, seminars, competitions, and general club information.

Any health data we hold on you is only for the purpose(s) of passing data to our staff / insurance bodies and the emergency services. We process this data on the basis of consent. Therefore, by providing us with health information you are fully aware this will be shared for your wellbeing and benefit.

The club has access to our various forms of social media pages. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of the Social Media pages, please note that provider of the social media platform(s) have their own privacy policies and that the club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.

MARTIAL ARTS EAST

Who we share your personal data with

When you become a member of Martial Arts East, you will be registered and licensed. We may need to provide our governing body with your personal data for insurance purposes. We will also provide our management system which collects your payments with basic personal data. Information may also be passed onto 3rd party event organisers when you are attending an event.

How long we hold your personal data

Any personal data we hold on you will be securely destroyed after five years of inactivity on that member's account. Please Note: The member must unsubscribe to emails if they no longer wish to receive emails for whatever reason e.g. leaving the club. This can be done by clicking unsubscribe on the most recent email.

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you may have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data.

As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us, we may not be able to register or administer your membership.

LAST UPDATED – 10/09/2024